Mission: Kinetics Dance Theatre, a non-profit organization, is dedicated to the development and presentation of contemporary dance as a living art form to the community. Kinetics continues to demonstrate its strong commitment to the region through community involvement in dance presentation, dance education and outreach. In 1984, Dorothy Fried, Keith Nichols and Stephanie Simmons founded Kinetics Dance Theatre to promote dance through performance and to offer high quality dance education to students of all ages. Kinetics is a four-component, non-profit organization, comprised of the Professional Dance Company, Senior and Student Dance Companies and the School of Contemporary Dance. The Professional Company is committed to creating unique and diverse modern dance works for audiences of all ages. Kinetics performs year-round in a variety of venues throughout the Mid-Atlantic Region.

Hours of Operation:

Notes/Comments: Promote the highest artistic standards, while encouraging creative expression through dance. Our goal is to guide, motivate and inspire our students and audiences of all ages towards becoming supportive and knowledgeable about the art of dance. Kinetics consists of four components: a professional dance company, two student dance companies--Senior and Student company, and the school of contemporary dance, which offers classes in modern technique, ballet, jazz, tap, musical theatre, hip hop, creative dance, dance fundamentals, yoga, pilates, dance fitness, and belly dance.
