

Dear HCAC friends and members,

It is with heartfelt thanks that we present this Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2014. Creating an environment where artists can thrive and the public can engage and connect with the arts are important goals for the Arts Council. And, it is only through the collective efforts and contributions of our friends and members that we are able to achieve them.

The accomplishments highlighted in this report would not have happened without your involvement and support. Topping this year's accomplishments:

Grants Administration

- Awarded 69 grants to local and regional arts organizations and county PTAs totaling a record $585,672.
- Awarded over $50,000 to individual artists in the form of scholarships, program grants, honoraria, and awards.

Advocacy

- Welcomed nearly 40,000 visitors to the Howard County Center for the Arts and provided opportunities for 3,000 artists to showcase their work.
- Recognized exemplary leadership in the arts through the Howie Awards. In FY14, Howies were awarded to musician Bruce Casteel (Outstanding Artist), Oakland Mills Middle School art teacher Raissa Howera (Outstanding Arts Educator), and arts advocate Toba Dobkin Barth (Outstanding Community Supporter of the Arts).
- Provided technical assistance and served on committees statewide to advocate on behalf of the County arts community.
- Published a quarterly newsletter and calendar of arts events.
- Maintained an active social media presence resulting in 26,900 unique visitors to www.hocoarts.org, expanded e-newsletter circulation, and increased our online audience through Facebook and Twitter.

Programs

- Mounted 12 exciting, original exhibits that featured 207 artists and 400 K-12 students.
- Placed 12 new temporary outdoor sculptures at community sites County-wide.
- Provided affordable rehearsal, performance, and studio space to over 60 artists and arts groups.
- Presented Fabulous 50+ Players musical theatre outreach programs at senior and community centers County-wide.
- Provided hands-on experiences in the arts to 120 children attending the Ellicott City and Tubman Head Start Centers through our highly acclaimed Head StART in ART artist-in-education program.
- Hosted the Cultural Arts Showcase as a service for PTAs and other cultural arts presenters to audition and meet artists and performers.

It is important to note that we ended the year in the black—thanks to our many supporters. We would like to take this opportunity to thank our major sponsors: The Isadore and Bertha Gudelsky Family Foundation, Howard Bank, M&T Bank, and PNC Foundation. And, we are profoundly grateful to County Executive Ken Ulman and County Council members Calvin Ball, Greg Fox, Mary Kay Sigaty, Jen Terrasa, and Courtney Watson for increasing the FY14 arts appropriation and for our 33-year partnership to foster the arts. As a result of this extraordinary partnership, Howard County is home to a vital and diverse arts community and residents have opportunities to participate in a wide range of arts activities year round.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to extend our thanks and appreciation to ALL of you who support the Arts Council's efforts. We encourage you to stay involved. Working together we will create a more vibrant, creative community—one that will inspire and delight future generations for many years to come!

Sincerely,
 Mark Coates, Board President
 Coleen West, Executive Director

Donors FY 2014

The Howard County Arts Council would like to thank the following individuals, families, organizations, agencies, and corporations who gave their financial and in-kind support to the arts in Howard County between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014. We make every effort to ensure that our many supporters are acknowledged, but sometimes errors and omissions occur. If you have contributed during this time and your name does not appear on the list, please contact us at 410-313-2787. Thank you for your understanding and continued support.

Exhibits

Paint It! Ellicott City July 15–August 23, 2013

Exhibit of paintings resulting from our fourth en plein air paint-out event with work from 25 juried artists in the gallery, as well as a one-day lobby exhibit of 33 community painters; the juror was Mark Karnes, Professor of Painting at Maryland Institute College of Art.

purpose repurpose July 15–August 23, 2013

Brian Ferrell's elegant, sculptural shelving created an interesting conversation with the quirky, found object clocks and lamps by Randall Cleaver.

ManneqArt: Sculpture on the Human Form September 14–28, 2013

In a "pop-up" exhibit in the Center's lobby we displayed seven wearable artworks made of paper, chainmail, nylon, fabric, and other mixed-media.

Tension & Flow: Sculpture in Flux

September 6–October 18, 2013

Three artists pushed the definition of sculpture: Benjamin Entner mimicked pencil drawings with his large inflatable still lifes; Susan Morrison wed hard, dark steel with lush, vibrant fabric in her sculptures, and Stewart Watson reflected on family, memory and reliability in her elaborate installation of found objects.

Of Place and Space September 6–October 18, 2013

Libby Barbee examined the makeup and vulnerability of the Chesapeake Bay area's flora and fauna through a multi-panel print and cut paper installation while Mimi Frank's steel sculptures reflected on the myth of Cassiopeia.

Art Howard County 2013 November 1–December 13, 2013

Thirty-nine Howard County artists, working in a variety of styles and media, were selected by guest juror Fahimeh Vahdat, Chair of Visual Arts at Howard Community College.

Complex Transformations November 1–December 13, 2013

This show focused on intricacy and layers with Eric Standley's multi-layered, laser-cut paper designs, Allie Rex's cut mylar installations, and Alice Whealin's ink on acetate paintings.

Digital Disclosures: UMBC Faculty Perspectives

January 10–February 21, 2014

Three UMBC faculty members showed the diversity of digital media. Vin Grabill exhibited his animated videos and accompanying still prints; Neal McDonald showed a demonstration of his photo-interpreting drawing program and its resulting prints; and Steve Silberg explored time and the pixel in video, prints, and an interactive photobooth.

Ordinary Woman January 10–February 21, 2014

In an exhibit curated by Diana Marta, 15 artists explored the complexity of women's lives through mixed media "dresses" and self-portraiture. With Adam Bradley, Nicole Buckingham, Deborah Ciccarella, Mary Deacon Opasik, Oletha DeVane, Lorraine Imwold, Tiffany Jones, Sharon Lee Minor, Diana Marta, Kelley Martin Broderick, Ginger Peloquin, Suzanne Herbert-Forton, Susan Stockman, Jessica Walton and Sarah Wegner.

Alternative Processes – Alternative Materials

March 14–April 25, 2014

The gallery was filled with the artwork of 400 K–12 students to celebrate Youth Art Month, in partnership with Howard County Public School System.

No Boundaries March 14–April 25, 2014

An exhibit of artwork from 34 youth and adult artists with developmental disabilities in partnership with Howard County Recreation and Parks Department of Therapeutic Recreation and Inclusion Services and Cedar Lane School.

Resident Visual Artists Exhibit 2014 May 9–June 27, 2014

HCAC's resident artists, James Adkins, Joan Bevelaqua, Andres Gomez, Myung Sook Kim, Art Landerman, Diana Marta, Amanda Gordon Miller, Jereme Scott, Alice St. Germain-Grey, Andrei Trach, Jamie Travers, Mary Jo Tydlacka, and David Zuccarini presented their recent work.

Weaving Outside the Box: Idioms in Fiber

May 9–June 27, 2014

The Weavers Guild of Greater Baltimore's juried show featured the work of 35 artists who interpreted common idioms through fiber art.

Grant Programs

Howard County Arts Council grants are awarded based on artistic merit, ability of the applicant to carry out the project and level of service to the community. Grantees are selected through a competitive process in which applications are reviewed by a volunteer advisory panel made up of academics and artists representing a variety of disciplines. Grant award recommendations are then reviewed and approved by the HCAC Board of Directors. In FY14, HCAC awarded 69 grants to local and regional organizations and county PTAs totaling $585,672.
