

Dear HCAC friends and members,

On behalf of the Howard County Arts Council Board and staff, we are pleased to present our Annual Report for Fiscal Year 2015. We are proud of what we have been able to do to support artists and connect people with the arts, but we couldn't have done it without you—our friends and members. Whether you made a donation, attended an event, or served on a committee, you made an important difference to the arts and artists in our community.

In Fiscal Year 2015, we:

- presented 12 exhibits featuring 207 visual artists and 400 students.
- provided affordable studio space to 14 visual artists and 3 arts organizations.
- hosted 36,000 visitors at the Art Center and provided opportunities for over 2,000 artists to further their work.
- piloted ARTreach, a one-day free family arts festival at Long Reach Village Center which featured three stages, a Pop Up Gallery Shop, an "LRVC Should Be" interactive photo booth, and hands-on activities with artists; over 1,000 people attended, 65 volunteers participated, and 110 visual and performing artists were featured.
- engaged 540 campers, ages 4–14, in the visual and performing arts during our eight-week summer camp program.
- awarded $10,000 in arts scholarships to college-bound seniors.
- organized a four-day plein air event in Ellicott City featuring 70 artists and hundreds of spectators.
- coordinated four community workshops led by artist Susan Stockman. Nearly 100 people participated in the creation of Metamorphosis, a 5 ft. x 9 ft. mosaic mural, installed at the Long Reach Village Center.
- continued to make the arts accessible to people of all abilities through initiatives such as our Fabulous Fifty+ Players musical theatre program for seniors and our No Boundaries program for young adults with disabilities.
- And more!

For 34 years we have worked hard to foster the arts. Throughout, we have partnered with County government to create and sustain a vital and diverse arts community. In FY 2015, we received a large increase from the County—bringing County support for the arts to $1.25 million—an all time high! We are extremely grateful to County Executive Ken Ulman and Council members Calvin Ball, Greg Fox, Mary Kay Sigaty, Jen Terrasa, and Courtney Watson for the increased funding and for recognizing the arts as vital to our quality of life.

One of our most important responsibilities is the administration of public funds designated for grants to support local and regional arts organizations. In FY 2015, we awarded $677,000 in operating and project grants. Of special note is the expanded organizational development and equipment grants which gave county arts organizations a rare opportunity to strengthen their management skills, build capacity, and enhance their ability to present programs.

In addition to providing grants, we address the needs of the arts community and the public by providing a home for the arts where artists have opportunities to work and perform and visitors have opportunities to connect with artists and participate in creative activities. Thousands visit the Howard County Center for the Arts, drawn by our exhibits, artist studios, performances, and programs.

Through the Howie Awards, we recognize individuals and organizations for their commitment to the arts. In FY 2015, Howies were awarded to: Peter BarenBregge, musician and Columbia Jazz Band Director—Outstanding Artist; Greg English, art teacher at Reservoir High School—Outstanding Arts Educator; and Howard Bank—Outstanding Business Supporter of the Arts. A special Legacy in the Arts Award was given posthumously to Yong Ku Ahn, musician, teacher, and first conductor of The Columbia Orchestra.

In FY 2015, our fundraising efforts remained strong—major gifts were received from PNC Foundation, Howard Bank, The Isadore and Bertha Gudelsky Family Foundation, and M&T Bank. Maryland State Arts Council funds remained level thanks to the efforts of our county delegation in Annapolis. Our membership roster topped 320 and the 2015 Celebration of the Arts gala, which featured the Rising Star Competition, was a big hit—over 500 artists and guests attended and $102,000 was raised to support the arts in Howard County.

Inside this report we recognize all of our donors—THANK YOU. Please know it is your participation and support that sustains the arts. Looking ahead, the Arts Council will celebrate its 35th anniversary in 2016. We hope you will stay involved and help us continue to enrich our community through the arts for the next 35 years!

Sincerely,

Mark Coates, Board President

Grant Programs Howard County Arts Council grants are awarded based on artistic merit, ability of the applicant to carry out the project and level of service to the community. Grantees are selected through a competitive process in which applications are reviewed by a volunteer advisory panel made up of academics and artists representing a variety of disciplines. Grant award recommendations are then reviewed and approved by the HCAC Board of Directors. In FY 2015, HCAC awarded $677,919 in matching grants to 50 organizations.
