

ARTreach Returns to Long Reach!

June 4, 11am-7pm

WE'RE SO EXCITED for the return of the ARTreach Festival! This free, fun, family festival takes place at Long Reach Village Center and features live performances of world music ranging from Afropop to funk and soul to Latin pop and more. Performers include Everyday Everybody (fka AZTEC SUN), Cheick Hamala Diabate, Cultura Plenera, DOGO du Togo, Ocho de Bastos, and The JoGo Project. Bring a camp chair and pick out a shady space under our tent to enjoy the music—there's even room to get up and dance!

Festivalgoers can also participate in hands-on arts activities: make a tie-dye T-shirt with the Village Center's own Roll Up N Dye; learn traditional pinata-making techniques with the Artesanas of Creative Alliance; create puppets with Beale Street Puppets; immerse yourself in the interactive environment at DoodleHatch; and more! Ceramics and fused glass artists will demonstrate their crafts inside the Columbia Art Center and there will be tours of the Long Reach Artist Studios throughout the afternoon. You can also have your caricature drawn, watch as your festival tote bag is screen printed right before your eyes, have your silhouette snipped, commemorate the day at our open-air photobooth, and so much more. Puppet shows, musicians, balloon twisters and other

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

This fall the Arts Council will begin the process of updating our strategic plan—a working document that will guide our policies and programs for the next 3-5 years. One of the most important elements of creating a successful plan is you! We need input from local artists, arts organizations, and arts supporters to help us learn what is working and what is not working in the arts community, so we can determine how to best move forward. While we are still in the beginning phase of this process, be on the lookout for opportunities to participate and share your vision for the arts in Howard County.
